

The undersigned serves as legal counsel to the Colorado Republican Federal Campaign Committee (referred to herein as "Colorado Republican Committee"). The Colorado Republican Committee is in receipt of your three letters, each dated September 12, 2008, which request for additional information and clarification to the federal election campaign finance disclosures for the report periods cited above.

The Colorado Republican Committee is committed to the open and transparent accounting of all its federal campaign activities, and is pleased to provide this additional information as requested.

For clarity, the responses below will be organized by monthly reporting period, and the responses and supplemental and clarifying information provided will follow the same format as your prior correspondence. If you, the Reports Analysis Division or the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") have any additional questions, or require further documentation or supplemental information, the undersigned is very pleased to accommodate your additional requests.
